Addendum to past articles – Acta Historiae Sancti Lazari Ordinis, 2024, 7:163-174

Elizabeth Cassar

Two new tableware items have recently come to the attention of the editors. The first item includes a seven-set of 10" diameter plates depicting the Arms of the Order on the lip. The plates form part of the Royal Doulton Hotel Ware series produced by Steelite International, England.[1]

[1] Offered for sale on eBay 15/03/2025 - Located in: Colorado Springs, CO, United States

The second item is a decorative wine bottle stopper depicting the green eight-pointed cross insignia of the Order [width: 5 cm; height: 11 cm] marketed as a Malta & Gozo souvenir by FGICA - F G I & C Attard Ltd, Qormi, Malta [Product Code 197 VG]. Similar wine bottle stoppers depicting the green eight-pointed cross [width: 6 cm; height: 12 cm] are available from Mdina Glass Malta (XK Holdings), Mdina, Malta [SKU: JW137GR-M].

FGICA Ltd

Mdina Glass

In addition, other decorative items include the custom-made fridge magnet related to the Order of St Lazarus being offered for sale from tourist shops in Victoria in Gozo in 2024; and the wall clock custom-made by Chev. Paul Banavage in 2006 as a fund-raising item. An undated Maltese traditional clock with Order of St Lazarus' Green Cross Arms on crown, and St John's eight-pointed cross symbols on door, gilded with elaborate 23 carat gold and platinum designs. Clock face gilded in

Fridge-magnet: ~2024

Platinum Roman Numerals. The centre of the clock face shows picture of Saint Paul's Church in Rabat, Malta.

Wall-clock: 2006
© Chev. Paul Banavage

Maltese traditional clock
undated